

MEMBERSHIP FACT SHEET

The Society for Neuroscience (SfN) is an organization of nearly 36,000 basic scientists and clinicians who study the brain and the nervous system, with members in more than 90 countries.

Mission

The Society's mission is to advance the understanding of the brain and the nervous system by advancing scientific exchange, supporting the neuroscience community, educating and engaging the public, and advocating for the field.

Membership

SfN membership connects you to the world's largest community of neuroscientists. By becoming a member, you will be joining 36,000 researchers, clinicians, and advocates from around the world in global scientific collaboration that promotes discovery and the translation of new knowledge into applications that improve human health and well-being.

Key Activities

- SfN's annual meeting, the world's largest conference devoted to understanding the brain and nervous system
- High-impact peer-reviewed journal JNeurosci
- Open-access peer-reviewed journal eNeuro
- BrainFacts.org, a public information initiative of The Kavli Foundation, the Gatsby Charitable Foundation, and SfN
- Innovative programs to promote diversity in the field, including the Neuroscience Scholars Program, the Latin American Training Program, and Increasing Women in Neuroscience Toolkits
- Advocacy efforts to promote the responsible use of animals in research and to communicate the importance of funding for basic and biomedical research across the globe
- Year-round outreach activities including Brain Awareness Week, a global campaign to increase public awareness of the progress and benefits of brain research
- Support for more than 150 national and international chapters

Benefits for Members

- Up to 45 percent off annual meeting registration
- Early access to annual meeting registration
- 33 percent off publication fees both JNeurosci and eNeuro submissions
- Complimentary online subscription to JNeurosci
- Unrestricted access to Neuronline, with hundreds of professional development resources including event recordings, research summaries, interviews with experts, a community forum, and more
- NeuroJobs Career Center, a database of career opportunities for well-qualified candidates ranging from postdoctoral and faculty positions to neuroscience-related jobs in other areas

Membership Categories

- PROFESSIONALS: Individuals who have obtained their doctoral degree and are currently working in a postdoctoral training position
Regular: $200
Scientists who have conducted research relating to neuroscience
Affiliate: $200
Individuals interested in SfN's mission who do are ineligible for all other membership categories
Postdoctoral Fellow: $150
Individuals who have obtained their doctoral degree and are currently working in a postdoctoral trainee program
- STUDENTS: Individuals who are enrolled in a degree-granting program or have received their degree within the past two years
Graduate: $70 | Undergraduate: $30

Emeritus and Developing Countries memberships are also available.

2019 REDUCED DUES COUNTRY LIST

To support neuroscientists living in income-restricted areas of the world and to encourage global collaboration in the scientific community, SfN offers reduced membership rates to residents of developing countries as defined according to World Bank country classifications, updated annually.

Countries are divided into three categories:

- Category 1, those having “low-income economies,” with a gross national income (GNI) per capita of $995 or less
- Category 2, those having “lower-middle-income economies,” with a GNI per capita of $996–$3,895
- Category 3, those having “upper-middle-income economies,” with a GNI per capita of $3,896–$12,055

Eligibility for reduced membership rates is determined based on a member’s primary residence and work addresses. Members who reside or work outside of these geographic locations are required to pay full membership dues.

Please contact membership@sfn.org if you believe you qualify for reduced membership rates and do not see your country listed below.
