NEUROSCIENCE 2017

Washington, DC
November 11–15

▶ SCIENTIFIC SESSIONS

30,021

attendees from 80 countries

13,527
abstract
presentations
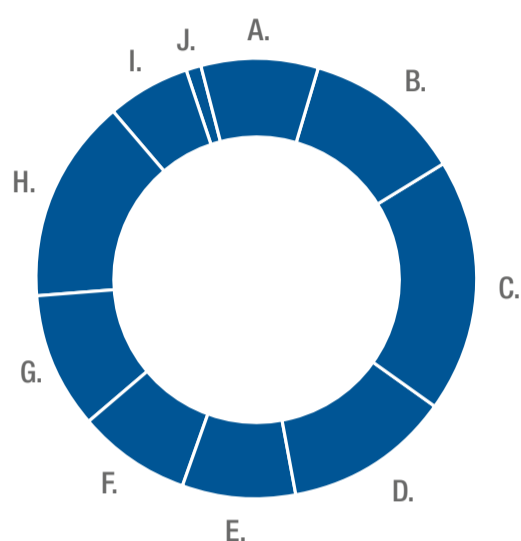

814
scientific sessions

536
exhibitors

15
professional development
workshops

Percent of abstract submissions in each theme

Theme A: Development 8.61%

Theme B: Neural Excitability, Synapses, and Glia 11.38%

Theme C: Neurodegenerative Disorders and Injury 19.03%

Theme D: Sensory Systems 12.16%

Theme E: Motor Systems 8.43%

Theme F: Integrative Physiology and Behavior 8.69%

Theme G: Motivation and Emotion 10.02%

Theme H: Cognition 14.53%

Theme I: Techniques 6.08%

Theme J: History and Education 1.07%

10 countries with the most abstract submissions

USA • Japan • Canada • Germany • UK • China • Republic of Korea • Mexico • Brazil • France

▶ SCI PUBS

26
eNeuro
editors at the SfN Booth

21
JNeurosci
editors at the SfN Booth

▶ PRESS PROGRAM

304
registered media and
public information officers

11
press
conferences

1,775
news hits related
to the meeting

▶ SOCIAL MEDIA

79,000
Facebook shares
of news articles

75.4
million Twitter
impressions

16,200
uses of #SfN17
on Twitter

309
tweets from @SfNtweets
and @Neurosci2017

783
retweets

2,126
likes of @SfNtweets

▶ ADVOCACY

22
countries responded
to the global advocacy poll

9
tours of the poster floor for members of Congress and staffers

455
attendees engaged in science
advocacy activities

▶ TRAINEE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AWARDS

150%
increase in funding available in 2017 over 2016

203
award
winners

163%
increase in awards given
in 2017 over 2016