SOC02. Cell Death and Cell Stress Social

Location:

Time: Sunday, October 18, 2015, 6:45 PM - 8:45 PM

Come to the Cell Death Social, where we will be “dying” to have a good time! Socialize while examining novel concepts in neurodegeneration, which pathways occur across multiple diseases, and how to translate basic mechanisms to clinical research for collaborative projects. Also, try to match amusing stories with the names of our some of our distinguished colleagues. Scientists confirmed to attend are from academia, industry, and basic and clinical neuroscience. Drinks will be served.
